

Lakeview Public Schools
Social Studies Curriculum
By Course, Standard, Benchmark
6th Grade Social Studies

SS01 Understands the historical chronology and the historical perspective

- 5000 01 Understands historical and cultural elements of Canada
- 5001 02 Understands historical and cultural elements of Latin America
- 4372 03 Knows the features of the major European explorations that took place between the 15th and 17th centuries (e.g., major expeditions, the problems encountered on the high seas; what sailors expected to find when they reached their destinations)
- 4625 04 Understands the significant features of Mayan, Aztec & Inca civilizations
- 4374 05 Knows aspects of exploration, conquest, and immigration to the Americas in the centuries following Columbus
- 4376 06 Understands the impact of Columbus' voyages on native populations and on colonization in the Americas

SS02 Understands the development of domestic, social, geographic, economic and ideological relationships, both similar and diverse and w/with/without conflict

- 7426 01 Understands the location of natural and people made features on maps and globes (e.g., Canada, the Yucatan peninsula; major ocean currents; wind patterns; land forms; climate regions, Mexican Pyramids, cities, canals, locks)

SS06 Understands the world in spatial terms according to the five themes of geography (place, location, region, movement, human environment/interaction)

- 4534 01 Understands and uses maps and globes (e.g., cardinal and intermediate projection, meridians, principal parallels)
- 4567 02 Understands the ways in which human movement and migration influence the character of a place within the United States

SS07 Understands the structure, functions and purposes of civic activities

- 4656 01 Understands the development of government in the Americas (e.g., Canada, Latin America)

SS08 Understands core democratic values reflected in American democracy

- 7407 01 Distinguish between representative democracy in the United States and other forms of government correlating similarities and differences in core democratic values

SS09 Understands the role of the citizen in American democracy

- 7408 01 Compare and contrast the role of citizens in United States with other Western Hemisphere countries

SS10 Understands the characteristics and interrelationships of global economic interdependence

- 6166 01 Knows consequences of international trade with Canada and Latin America to consumers and producers
- 6168 02 Knows how businesses are involved in trade with Canada and Latin America as producers, distributors, importers, and exporters
- 6845 03 Knows that a nation's ability to import or export affects its growth
- 6846 04 Knows that international policies or agreements can create, expand, diversify, or hinder growth within our hemisphere

6847 05 Understands that education and skills add to a country's overall productivity

SS11 Understands how scarcity requires individuals and institutions to make choices about availability and usage of resources

6858 01 Knows the structure of business for Canada and Latin America

6859 02 Knows how capital is risked for the sake of profit in Canada and Latin America

6860 03 Knows various methods of distribution of goods in Canada and Latin America

7406 04 Knows how businesses are involved in trade as producers, distributors, importers, and exporters with regards to Canada and Latin America

SS12 Understands the importance of information processing, data management and information synthesis and application

7409 01 Explain how culture and experiences shape positions that people take on an issue

Lakeview Public Schools
Social Studies Curriculum
By Course, Standard, Benchmark
7th Grade Social Studies

SS01 Understands the historical chronology and the historical perspective

- 4601 01 Understands inherent disadvantages and advantages of early hunter/gatherer and the growth of civilizations through the middle ages (1453 AD)
- 4603 02 Understands that agricultural life was an advance in human social development

SS03 Understands the development of international social, geographic, economic, and ideological relationships, both similar and diverse

- 4606 01 Understands historical and cultural characteristics of civilizations in the Eastern Hemisphere through the middle ages
- 4591 02 Understands the consequences of the use of resources in the contemporary world

SS06 Understands the world in spatial terms according to the five themes of geography (place, location, region, movement, human environment/interaction)

- 4535 01 Understands and applies map and globe concepts
- 5826 02 Knows and applies the characteristics of map making
- 4544 03 Knows the location of natural and people made features on maps and globes
- 4559 04 Understands criteria that give a region identity (e.g., its central focus, and the relationships between physical and cultural characteristics)
- 4562 05 Knows the ways in which culture influences perceptions (e.g., religion and other belief systems, language, and tradition; perceptions of "beautiful" or "valuable")
- 4566 06 Knows the ways in which human movement and migration influence the character of a place in the Eastern Hemisphere

SS07 Understands the structure, functions and purposes of civic activities

- 4655 01 Understands why government is necessary (monarchy, dictatorship, Greek democracy)
- 4792 02 Knows that the world is divided into countries that claim sovereignty over a defined territory and jurisdiction over everyone within it
- 4795 03 Knows the most important means used by countries to interact with one another

SS08 Understands core democratic values reflected in American democracy

- 7415 01 Explain how the values in history contributed to the development of our core democratic values

SS10 Understands the characteristics and interrelationships of global economic interdependence

- 6167 01 Understands consequences of international trade with Eastern Hemisphere to consumers and producers
- 6169 02 Understands how businesses are involved in trade with the Eastern Hemisphere as producers, distributors, importers, and exporters
- 6845 03 Knows that a nation's ability to import or export affects its growth
- 6846 04 Knows that international policies or agreements can create, expand, diversify, or hinder growth within our hemisphere
- 6847 05 Understands that education and skills add to a country's overall productivity

SS11 Understands how scarcity requires individuals and institutions to make choices about availability and usage of resources

- 6862 01 Knows the structure of business for the Eastern Hemisphere
- 6863 02 Knows how capital is risked for the sake of profit the Eastern Hemisphere
- 6861 03 Knows various methods of distribution of goods in the Eastern Hemisphere

SS12 Understands the importance of information processing, data management and information synthesis and application

- 7416 01 Supports a particular stand reflecting opposing views based upon the evidence

Lakeview Public Schools
Social Studies Curriculum
By Course, Standard, Benchmark
8th Grade Social Studies

SS01 Understands the historical chronology and the historical perspective

- 5043 01 Understands the religious, social, political and economic events that shaped American society through the Civil War
- 6375 02 Understands trade patterns and the development of colonies
- 6376 03 Understands the American Revolution
- 6377 04 Understands the development of the United States Constitution
- 6378 05 Knows the development of sectionalism prior to the United states Civil War
- 6379 06 Knows the conduct of the United States Civil War

SS06 Understands the world in spatial terms according to the five themes of geography (place, location, region, movement, human environment/interaction)

- 6836 01 Knows the relative location and distances between places in the United States
- 6834 02 Knows the ways in which human movement and migration influence the character of a place within the United States
- 6835 03 Knows that significant physical features that have influenced historical events

SS07 Understands the structure, functions and purposes of civic activities

- 4653 01 Understands why government is necessary
- 4690 02 Understands the primary responsibilities of each branch of government in a system of shared powers and ways in which each branch shares the powers and functions of the other branches
- 4740 03 Understands why taxation was necessary to pay for government before the civil war
- 6165 04 Knows how awareness of the nature of American constitutional change gives citizens the ability to reaffirm or change fundamental constitutional values

SS08 Understands core democratic values reflected in American democracy

- 4714 01 Understands how core democratic values are fundamental to American public life
- 4702 02 Knows the essential ideas of American constitutional government that are expressed in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and other writings
- 4721 03 Knows that constitutional government is a fundamental principle of American democracy (fundamental beliefs)
- 4706 04 Understands how the United States Constitution serves to limit the powers of government and protect the rights of the individual

SS11 Understands how scarcity requires individuals and institutions to make choices about availability and usage of resources

6864 01 Knows the structure of economy in different regions of the nation

6865 02 Knows how capital was risked for the sake of profit

6866 03 Knows various methods of distribution of goods

6857 04 Uses economic reasoning when comparing prices, quality, and features of goods and services

SS12 Understands the importance of information processing, data management and information synthesis and application

6869 01 Supports a particular stand based on the evidence